Dear Mr.

In Mr. Dulles' behalf I have looked into the subject of your letter of October 28th and I am afraid that we can be of very little help to you in your application for employment in the Department of State. I think that perhaps you must have misunderstood the word from the Department of State that your papers were being processed by this Agency, although without doubt they made inquiry of us respecting your record with the OSS. We appreciate your anxiety about your pending application and particularly the motives which prompt you to be of service to the Department of State. Nevertheless there is nothing we can do in this connection.

Sincerely,

Assistant to the Director
